MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency

SUBJECT : NPT Review Conference

REFERENCE : Your Memorandum, 9 January 1984 (CONFIDENTIAL)

1. I recognize the importance of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and can assure you that the Intelligence Community already is taking steps to provide intelligence support for the Review Conference and its preparatory meetings. [redacted]

25X1

2. My National Intelligence Officer, David B. Low, has had recent meetings with your Assistant Director Lewis A. Dunn to review the particular areas of interest. Also, a detailed set of requirements has been received from Assistant Director M. Eimer on 10 January and will be given to collectors for appropriate actions. In addition to providing you with the results of these efforts, we plan to prepare later this year or early next year an overall assessment of the prospects for the NPT Review Conference which should be valuable in making final preparations for the conference. [redacted]

25X1

3. In due course you may wish to provide your Agency's perspectives for that assessment's lines of inquiry. In the meantime, we should continue to work together closely to ensure that your intelligence needs are met. [redacted]
